

The Lord's Last Warning to America Before Judgment

Received October 19, 2025

In this vision, I saw an American Indian warrior. He brought a message to America that appeared like a fort in the wilderness. His message was to hoist the white flag and surrender to the Lord.

He announced to America, "This is your final warning, for the judgment will be severe. The host of heaven will be released against you, for you have not humbled yourself or repented. This is your last warning. Devastation will come to the West Coast and flow to the East Coast; devastation will also come to the East Coast and flow to the West Coast; from the south to the north and from the north to the south. The Lord Himself has commanded it, and He will bring it and release it, until you cry out for forgiveness, and then the Lord will forgive, but not until then.

"The judgment that will be released is designed to break your pride and to bring humility. Pride comes before a fall. America, you will surely fall until you acknowledge that the Lord of hosts is God and there is no other."

I then saw the Lord standing before me, and He impressed me again with the severity of the judgment that is coming to America. Make no mistake, the judgment will come in great severity.

Those who follow the Holy Spirit will be given guidance that will lead them through the devastation that is coming to this country, if not the whole world. I saw myself and others walking on a narrow, elevated path (Is 35:8). I also saw devastation, darkness, and gloom on either side of the path, but the Glory of the Lord shone upon those walking on His path; Jesus will lead us on it. The instruction given to me was, again, to give Him room (Joshua 3:3-4).

On the path, be prepared to let things go. Jesus said:

"Matthew 7:13-14 (NASB95)

¹³ "Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it. ¹⁴ "For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it.
